CONSCRIPT WEALTH

SENATOR JOHNSON IN A DRAMATIC PLEA ON REVENUE BILL.

A HIGHER PROFITS TAX

Tax Bill to be Revised Upward to Catch Munition Makers—"Let Profits Pay For War."

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Washington, Aug. 21.—Conscription of wealth to such extent as to take the burden of financing the war off the shoulders of the poor man was advocated in the senate this afternoon by Senator La Follette.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The demand that swollen war profits and huge incomes bear a larger share of the war taxation burden has grown to such a volume in the Senate that it now appears probable that the bill worked out by the Senate committee may be redrafted and revised upward. The committee had been seeking to pass it without material amendment but with such forceful leaders as Senator Borah of Idaho, Senator Johnson of California, Senator Cummins of Iowa and others prepared to fight for much greater taxes on war profits and the elimination of consumption on the necessities of life, plans to rush the bill to an early vote are wrecked.

Higher taxation of "swollen" profits of war was urged by Senator Johnson of California. The bill, he said, takes only a small part of such profits.

"We have conscripted the blood of the nation," said he. "Let us conscript the wealth coined out of that blood. With abounding enthusiasm we conscripted the youth of the land to die if need be on a foreign soil. I ask that the same enthusiasm be shown to conscript the wealth of the nation to stand behind the youths who have gone forth to the trenches."

"Our lads have gone, to use a hackneyed phrase, to preserve world democracy."

"Those who coin profits from the blood of war and make swollen profits ought to pay the cost. The amount proposed by this bill is but a little money on such profit."

Senator Johnson said he was "staggered" by the probably war costs estimated at twenty billions of dollars the first year "and without a single shot fired."

"The future liability halts imagination," he continued. "I believe the liability of this nation at the close of the war will be greater than that of any other belligerent."

"All this the people are willing to do but they ask that the burden be placed not alone upon them, but that some of it come from those profiting by the war."

Senator Johnson referred to the "enormous profits" of the United States Steel corporation and said, "how they must laugh to scorn a people's congress that deals so tenderly with war profits," at a very time when money is so badly needed.

INSURING OUR MEN

MEASURE NOW UP FOR LIFE AND INDEMNITY INSURANCE.

BETTER THAN PENSIONS

After the War the Insurance May be Converted into Other Forms—Bill Introduced in Congress.

The plan of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo for life and indemnity insurance for the soldiers and sailors of the United States, after discussions by representative insurance men and report on by advisory committees, has been put in definite form and submitted to President Wilson.

The President's comment was as follows: "I have examined the enclosed papers very carefully and take pleasure in returning them with my entire approval."

A bill has been introduced in Congress along the lines suggested by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the President.

In essentials it is proposed that the government furnish at cost to the soldiers and sailors of the United States life and indemnity insurance.

The main features of the Secretary's plan are that the government shall bear all the cost of the administration of the insurance plan and that no expense of any kind shall be a charge on the funds created by the payment of premiums by the soldiers and sailors.

Relieved of overhead charges, eight dollars a year for every thousand dollars insurance will be an adequate charge, under the plan, and this figure will put the maximum insurance of ten thousand dollars within the reach of practically every private soldier or sailor. Insurance in private companies would cost many times this sum for men actually engaged in warfare.

After the war the insurance may be converted into other forms. The insurance is to be payable in installments, is non-assignable and free from the claims of creditors of the insured or of the beneficiary, and is limited to the wife, children, and other specified kindred.

If total disability results or disease is contracted in the course of service, the compensation is to be based on percentage of pay, with a minimum, however, of from forty to seventy-five dollars a month according to the size of the family. Partial disabilities are to be computed on a basis of percentages of total disability.

Medical, surgical and hospital treatments, supplies and appliances are to be given. Rehabilitation and re-education of the injured soldiers or sailors, fitting them for lives of activity and usefulness is part of the plan.

The plan also contemplates free allowances to the families of soldiers and sailors the government supplementing the sums set aside by the soldiers and sailors out of their wages.

The insurance is not to be a gift of the government but is to be paid for out of the pay of the insured men. The government, however, is to take upon itself the cost of collecting and administering the funds and also the extra hazard caused by the war, the rate of eight dollars per thousand being a normal rate in peace time and an entirely inadequate rate for war risk.

The workmen's compensation laws and the experiences of insurance companies in this country and the laws and experiences of other countries have been studied and used in the preparation of this bill.

Secretary McAdoo emphasizes the justice and rightfulness of such a function of the government by citing the fact that in this war we are not relying upon the volunteer system but are drafting American men and compelling them to undergo danger and, if necessary, make the supreme sacrifice for their country. A higher obligation, he says, therefore rests upon the government not only towards the fighting men but towards those dependent on them and a just, generous and humane government should see to it that so far as is practicable they should be given this protection, not as a matter of mercy or charity but as a matter of right. And that they should enter into the service of their country with the certain knowledge that if death or misfortune comes to them they and their de-

Going After the Coal Trust.

Attorney General McAllister is now prosecuting a vigorous investigation of the coal trust and is developing some startling facts. He is going about his work in a thoroughly practical manner and we predict that when he gets through with that bunch of pirates and highwaymen they will be willing to be good for the next generation.

Missouri will not be considered a desirable place for the formation of pools, combinations, trusts or agreements to mulct and rob the people while McAllister is on the job.

TO THE DRAFTED MEN.

You go, not as reluctant victims of misfortune, no Or a fatal chance to the long battle line, you know, Where the armies of autocracy face those of the free, But rather as our chosen ones, standing for our country.

You are the pick and flower of manhood, yes indeed; Whole of body and sound in mind, 'tis you we are in need. You understand war can not be in our ouisissions. But, must have it in keeping with our great traditions.

Why do you worry when this war will soon avast, Then 'twill be a progressive country, moreso than in the past. Then 'twill be a progressive country, moreso than in the past? For this will mean something greater in history.

When several of the large armies you aggression Then you will face some armies of oppression. You go with the nation's blessing; Oh she trusts you in keeping her in the lead she knows you'll do.

Generous is she to her soldier sons, but 'tis right When they fight for her, for years with all their might. Because we all can not go, you must not scold. For some of us may be too weak while others too old.

Some are unfitted to go in many other respects, But all will be with you in spirit, you can expect. On the firing line your mothers shall with you be, All the time in imagination and in sympathy.

As the clouds of war hang over us this minute We must make our patriotic sacrifice to the limit, And when the country needs my help I will sign A pledge to serve in any capacity just any time.

But school children must go on with their education, Not only in Maryville, but throughout the creation. The events in this present crisis will soon cease And we are the inheritors of the World's Tomorrow of Peace.

I will now more fervently pray for you, dear brother, And so will your father, sweetheart and dear mother. To each and everyone of you I will say good-bye— And may God bless you, all who really do try.

Whether or not you return, your names, keep in mind, We'll hold in honor and grateful memory until the end of time. You will always carry the stars and stripes and say, "Any day I will fight for my country, our dear old U. S. A."

32 BUSHELS OF WHEAT.

Oakerson Bros., west of Maryville, report a yield of thirty-two bushels of wheat an acre from a six-acre tract. A fourteen-acre tract averaged twenty-one bushels to the acre, and a twenty-acre tract brought an average of twenty-four bushels.

Twenty acres of oats made fifty-five bushels an acre. Fifty-five hogs were shipped recently by Oakerson Bros., which brought $1,810. Two hogs in the load brought $77 a piece. One hog was sold by them recently for $94.50.

JUST AN EXCHANGE OF VIEWS.

Entente Allies Won't Hold Formal Conference on Pope's Appeal.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Lord Cecil's statement in the British Parliament yesterday that the Entente governments would hold a conference before replying to Pope Benedict's peace proposal is understood at the State Department as meaning that the governments will exchange views—not that there is to be a gathering of plenipotentiaries or foreign ministers for a formal conference. The American government could not participate in such a gathering for lack of time to send its representative, if for no other reason.

It is believed however, that the necessary measure of co-operation between the nations at war with Germany can be obtained through cabled exchanges and conferences between the diplomatic representatives and the foreign secretaries at the different capitals.

Despondent Women.

Constantly recurring suffering gives women "the blues." Comparatively few women realize that despondency, together with backache, headache, and that "dragging-down" feeling indicate some derangement of the feminine organs, for which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remedy.

It is said that this famous, old root and herb remedy has been the means of restoring more women to health and consequent happiness than any other remedy in the world.

Don't wait until your life is wrecked by neglect and suffering. Give the Compound a trial.

TO PASS ON RESIGNATION

Dr. C. M. Chilton Asks Church in St. Joseph to Consider the Advisability of His Leaving.

The following is from last evening's St. Joseph News-Press:

At the service at the First Christian church yesterday morning the pastor, Dr. C. M. Chilton, announced to his congregation that he would place his resignation in the hands of the official board of the church at its September meeting. He said that he wished the members of the congregation in the meantime to consider it thoroughly.

Dr. Chilton has been pastor of the First Christian church here a score of years, and is extremely popular, both in the church and outside it. He said that he believed the congregation should be free to express itself as to the desirability of retaining him. He said he didn't want anyone to consider him, personally, in reaching a decision, and assured the members that any action they might take would not create the least bad feeling.

Penitentiary Yields a Surplus.

When Governor Gardner suggested a change in the method of operating the State Penitentiary and the complete abolition of the contract labor system, many Republicans, in the Legislature and out of it, opposed the change and asserted that it would cost the taxpayers at least a million dollars a year.

In this connection the monthly report of State Treasurer Middlekamp is interesting. This report discloses that the earnings of the penitentiary for the month of July were $90,786.71 and the disbursements were $86,562.52, leaving a balance for the month of $4,224.18.

All other State funds show healthy balances also. State revenue $885,382.58; State school funds $2,024,008.11; State road fund $640,526.40; Capitol building fund $707,831.17.

Democrats of Missouri may well point with pride to the business record of the present administration as evidenced by the splendid financial showing.

DR. HERMANN M. BIGGS.

Council of Defense at Albany, under whose authorization the experiments were carried on by a group of lung specialists and roentgenologists. State Health Commissioner Hermann M. Biggs was in charge of the examinations.

The Sixty-ninth made an admirable showing in the tests, to judge from the findings announced on the 600 plates interpreted to date. Of these 600 there were twenty-two men, or a fraction over 3 per cent, found with definite tuberculosis sufficient to disqualify them for military service. In addition there were eighteen who showed pulmonary lesions or lung changes, indicating arrested tuberculosis. The twenty-two definite cases, taking Canada's figures as a basis, if exposed to the strain of life in the trenches would inevitably break down and be invalided home. The expense of their training, transportation and other items entering into the making of a soldier would thus be lost, in addition to their being a source of infection to their fellow soldiers. The expense to the government of care and pension allowance would also be entailed, amounting to at least $1,000 annually for each one, who under ordinary conditions might have continued civilian activities without physical impairment.

These experiments, according to the report, are believed to have demonstrated the entire practicability of the method of determining the presence of the disease among soldiers at a minimum of time and medical supervision. Seven and one-half hours were required for the making of the 1,030 exposures, or twenty-six seconds per man; developing the plates by one man took forty hours, or two minutes and twenty-four seconds per plate; interpreting the 600 plates was done in eight hours, or at the rate of forty-eight seconds per plate. Thus the total time for making, developing and reading each plate was three minutes and thirty-eight seconds. The report states that this time can be materially cut by means of a few mechanical improvements.

Big Paying Proposition.

Kansas City, June 19, 1917.

Unity Oil Co., Kansas City, Mo. Gentlemen:

To satisfy my own curiosity I went to Nowata Okla., Friday night, and on Saturday, watched, with interest the completing and shooting of well designated as Number five which showed good oil indication and a good production of oil and gas after being shot.

The four wells now on the Nowata lease all run about 500 feet in depth and as the place is nearly surrounded with wells in operation with apparently the same surface formation as the Unity lease, it looks to me as though each well drilled should add its bit towards making this tract a big paying proposition, and I am well satisfied with the showing and glad I made the trip for my own satisfaction.—J. L. Feemster, Storekeeper Kansas Terminal Ry., Kansas City, Mo.

SEND SAMMY'S MAIL RIGHT

Letters Should Indicate His Company and Regiment, Otherwise It Will Be Returned.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Mail for American soldiers in France will not be forwarded unless the addresses show the company and regiment or the name of the separate unit to which the soldier belongs.

Postmaster General Burleson directed postmasters today to return to senders all mail not addressed in that manner. The American postal agency in France has been swamped with mail bearing such addresses as "Somewhere in France," "Care the American Expeditionary Forces," etc. It has been found impossible to undertake the location of men to whom letters are addressed without specific company and regiment designations. Postal authorities in France, England and Canada have taken similar action.

Attended a Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lattler and daughter of Maryville will return home from a Colorado trip about the first of the month. The following is taken from the Colorado Springs Gazette about the family reunion, which they attended:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Finney, 226 North Prospect street, was the scene of a very happy family reunion last Tuesday when all of their children, nine sons and daughters, were gathered together for the first time in twenty-five years. A delicious old-fashioned turkey dinner was served at noon, and thirty members of the family were seated at the table. They talked over the 'good old times' and were favored with a speech by an old friend, the schoolmaster of most of the children, Dr. Charles Hayes, of Hot Springs, Ark.

The family lived in Mound City, Mo. until thirteen years ago, when they moved to Colorado Springs.

Traveling farther and faster than any human being has ever traveled on land, sea or air in 24 hours, Joe Dawson in a stock Chalmers Speedster Chassis has smashed all Speedway records by covering the astonishing distance of 1898 miles in a twice-around-the-clock race against time on the Sheepshead Bay Speedway.

The old twenty-four-hour record was 1819 miles, held by a Hudson. Chalmers bettered this wonderful mark by 79 miles.

The old one-hour mark of 77 miles, also made by a Hudson, the Chalmers bettered by six miles.

The 100-mile record, also held by a Hudson stock car, is 80 minutes, 21.40 seconds. Chalmers covered this distance in 8 minutes, 11.23 seconds less time.

The 12-hour mark of 923 miles made by a Hudson was bettered by the Chalmers which ran 957 miles in 12 hours—34 miles farther.

The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association has approved and accepted these performances as official records. The trial was made under its supervision and was timed with the automatic electric timing device.

Great as was the performance of the Hudson in establishing such wonderful marks, the achievement of the stock Chalmers Speedster chassis was all the more wonderful, particularly because of its motor piston displacement of 224 cubic in. This test of endurance is conclusive evidence of the economy of the small, powerful Chalmers motor.

1898 miles in 24 hours—that is approximately the distance from Chicago to San Francisco.

In the first hour the Chalmers covered 83 miles; in the twenty-four hour over 81 miles; and for the entire distance the average was 79-1/12 miles per hour.

Any engine that can travel at this terrific speed day and night for 24 hours on a day that averaged 90 degrees in temperature and without the slightest mishap is certainly an engine to marvel at.

For sheer endurance, for ability not only in speed but in sustained speed, this performance is without equal in history; and yet it is a regular stock Chalmers engine.

Come and see the Autumn and Winter Chalmers—there are eleven of them.

EAGLE MEDAL PROPOSED.

To Be Bestowed Upon Heroic American Soldiers.

Washington.—Congress is now being urged to establish a medal to be known as "The American eagle medal" to rank in American deeds of valor with the Victoria cross of England. It is the purpose of the supporters of the measure to bestow this medal only upon those American soldiers whose heroism stands out brilliantly. A bill to this effect has been introduced by Representative O'Shaunessy.

A tentative design shows a medal about the size of a half dollar, the front adorned by the figure of Liberty crossing the ocean, the American flag in one hand, a sword in the other. Beneath the figure the inscription appears, "Pacem Arma Teutur"—peace is preserved through arms.

The reverse side shows an American eagle with outstretched wings within an olive wreath. Above is a cloud effect in which appear two clasped hands, signifying the union of the United States and her allies. The ribbon supporting the medal is of red, white, blue and black, the latter one of the enemy's colors and by custom always included.

MEANING OF MARINES' RIBBON

Mysterious Particolored Strips Worn on Breasts.

Washington.—"The little strips of particolored ribbon so often seen on the breasts of our 'soldiers of the sea' are a mystery to most civilians," says Major General George Barnett, commandant of the United States marine corps. "Every one and three-eighths inches of the strip denotes that the wearer is the possessor of a medal awarded for valor or good conduct or of a badge for service in some famous campaign."

"The man with the light blue strip decorated with white stars possesses the greatly coveted medal of honor; the blue, white and red combination means service in the Philippine insurrection; two bands of blue and gray of equal width, service in the civil war; two bands of blue separated by yellow, service in the Spanish-American war; red, yellow, blue, yellow and red bordered with blue, the Cuban occupation. One of the easiest to recognize is the China campaign badge, a band of yellow with edges of blue."

HUGGED BY A MONKEY.

Swings From a Tree and Throws Arms About Neck of a Young Woman.

Denver.—The lovable monkey is loose. When he swung from the low branches of a tree at Twelfth avenue and Detroit street and threw his arms about the neck of a young woman pedestrian there was a lot of commotion. Aside from breaking the spooning laws, the monkey shouldn't have chosen broad daylight.

A scream from the young woman brought residents to their doors. They saw her running in one direction and the monkey in another. It was difficult for them to ascertain which was the more frightened, the young woman or the lovable monkey.

Patrolmen from the Capitol Hill station have been pursuing the lovable monkey.

Where the monkey came from is a question. The zoo keeper at City park says all his monkeys are "just where they should be" and that none of them would be ungentlemanly enough to leave home and try to hug pedestrians.

CAVE MAN ENLISTS.

Bayer Cured Tuberculosis by Going Naked For Ten Years.

San Francisco.—After running naked on a secluded island of the Santa Barbara group for ten years, during which time he lived as his ancestors had lived thousands of years before him on fish, mussels and game killed with a stone hatchet, Christian I. Bayer is now a soldier of the United States.

They told Bayer a decade ago in Burlington, Ia., he had tuberculosis and his days were numbered. But when he came here to enlist he passed a perfect physical examination and was at once accepted. The life of a cave man had effected a complete cure. He stripped down and showed a body as tanned as his face.

Bayer is a native of Denmark, thirty-nine years old.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Aug. 20.

—Cattle receipts were 20,000 head today, market 10c to 25c lower, more in some cases, nothing prime included. Hog receipts were 6,000 head, market 50c higher, nothing choice included, best here $19.20, but good hogs weighing above 225 pounds would go at $19.40. Sheep supply was 2,000, market 25c lower, some lambs weighing 62 pounds, and not fat at the top $15.75.

Beef Cattle.

Weakness set in last Thursday afternoon on all kinds except prime finished cattle, which are scarce, and would sell today about as high as any time. An outside buyer was today looking for prime heifers, willing to pay $13, but the best he could find was some good grass heifers, for which he paid $9.75, steady with last week. Other grass heifers at $8.75, and some heavy cows at $8.75, were called 50 cents lower than last week. The best pasture steers here brought $11.75, and lower grades of weighty grass steers sold down to $9.00, light Oklahomas at $7.00. These cattle are 50 to 75 cents lower than the best time last week. Idaho killing steers weighing 890 to 970 pounds sold today at $9.00, Oregon cows, 948 pounds at $8.50. Oregon steers at $11.25 to $12.50. Chicago had 29,000 today, with expectation of only 20,000. St. Louis 12,500, St. Joseph 4,500, too many for the capacity at their market. Heavy declines are reported from each of these markets.

Stockers and Feeders.

Prices declined 50 cents after Tuesday last week, and quit somewhat lower than end of previous week. The market is 10 to 25 cents lower today, and this week should prove a good time to buy. Stock steers range from $6.75 to $9.00, feeders $8.50 to $10.00, fleshy steers for feeding much easier to get away from the packers than heretofore, at $10.50 to $11.50.

Hogs.

Top hogs sold at $19.20 today, as compared with a top of $17.35 one week ago. At that, the top price today did not represent the real market, for good hogs would have brought $19.40, more than two dollars advance in a week. The market is 50 cents higher today, and there seems to be no stopping it until it runs past 20 cents a pound some little distance. Demand for pork for soldiers at the front, puts no restrictions on the prices. Aside from the small receipts, quality is lacking and weights are light to an extent that is alarming, in view of probable future requirements for pork products.

Sheep and Lambs.

The market has declined materially from the high point last Wednesday, when $16.75 was paid for choice Colorado lambs, a sale of the best here today being at $15.75, though the lambs weighed only 62 pounds, and were not choice by several points. Natives sold at $15.65 today, good fat ewes worth around $10. Breeding ewes are worth $12.00 to $14.00, a few head of black face ewes to a trader today at $15.00, three years old and under.
